

The RYAs Marine Radio Short Range Certificate (SRC) is the minimum qualification required to operate marine VHF radio equipment on a UK flagged vessel. This includes both fixed and handheld equipment with and without Digital Selective Calling (DSC).

The Course

- Routine operation of marine VHF radio including Digital Selective Calling
- The correct VHF channels (frequencies) to be used for each type of communication
- Distress, emergency and medical assistance procedures
- Ship to shore communication
- Practical use of Marine VHF DSC radios
- Global Maritime Distress and Safety System (GMDSS)
- Emergency Position Indicating Radio Beacons (EPIRB)
- Search and Rescue Transponders (SART)

Course Duration

- 1 - 2 days dependent

Requirements

- There is no age limit for taking the SRC course although exam candidates must be 16 years old on the day of the exam.
- Booking form and copy of ID

Classroom Requirements

- Notepad and pen
- Identification (either ID/ Passport)
- Laptop and charger
- Access to a credit card to pay 60 pounds for the exam fee

Provided

- Tea and Coffee

For more information and booking contact info@synctraining.co.za

071 106 7047 / 083 735 6691